KIM R. SIEGERT NAMED REGIONAL ATTORNEY OF NLRB PITTSBURGH, PA REGIONAL OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board General Counsel Ronald Meisburg today announced the appointment of Kim Siegert as Regional Attorney of the NLRB's Regional Office in Pittsburgh, PA (Region 6). Mr. Siegert, a former Deputy Regional Attorney in Pittsburgh, will be responsible for the supervision of legal work in cases arising under the National Labor Relations Act in Region 6, which services western Pennsylvania and 26 counties in northern West Virginia.

"Kim Siegert has compiled an exemplary record during his 29 years of service with the NLRB," said General Counsel Meisburg. "His broad range of experience, particularly his strong litigation skills and success in negotiating settlements, will continue to be an invaluable asset for the Pittsburgh office."

Mr. Siegert graduated with a B.A. degree from Ithaca College in 1976 with a major in Politics. He attended the University of Baltimore School of Law, where he served as Legislation Editor on the law school's Law Review. After being a law clerk for a judge on the Circuit Court in Maryland, Mr. Siegert started his career with the Agency as a field attorney in the Agency's Fort Worth, TX office in 1981. He transferred to the Pittsburgh office in 1984, became a Supervisory Attorney in 2001 and was promoted to Deputy Regional Attorney in 2009.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.
